

I am a truck driver that numerously take trips through and around chicago, and I rely on my xm radio for traffic and weather. The xm radio is more up to date than any other radio station I listen to, and it enables me to make decision on my route to avoid problem errors. I personally think it should be a crime to take a such a wonderful program away. thank you